And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to explain to the members of this Senate what this bill is. It is a bill which has been submitted to the Highway Department, or rather the Registration Department of the Department of Revenue. It provides that where titles are jointly in the name of the husband and wife the two of them can transfer not only the title, but it carries with it, on the payment of two dollars, the license of the car. They tell me over in the Highway Department there are about four of these cases a year. It makes a good deal of controversy. It is a small matter, but the matter of two licenses for a car means a good deal to certain people. The Department has no objection to this bill, and believes it ought to be passed. Where the husband and wife jointly own the title and one of them dies, the survivor succeeds to the title. It merely means that the driver's license or license of the car, on payment of two dollars to the owner to whom the title has been transferred, can immediately obtain a license for the car.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

L. 736), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder," to exempt persons furnished work as an emergency unemployment relief measure by welfare or relief officers from the provisions thereof.

be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and members of this Senate, some two weeks ago or more the Mayor of Philadelphia called together the members of the Senate from Philadelphia, and insisted that the members of this Senate do not come back to Philadelphia without having some proper consideration of the question of the distribution of the road fund. We feel down in Philadelphia, in view of the fact that a very large proportion of the money that goes into the highways of Pennsylvania comes into the Department of Highways from the moneys collected in Philadelphia, that we are entitled to proper consideration. We have been offered in the Senate a bill known as the Williamson bill. That bill seems to me, with the approval of the Mayor and the people in authority in the city of Philadelphia, to be a very important bill. It is high time that Philadelphia should be considered in the distribution of these funds. There is some talk or thought that possibly if such a bill as the Williamson bill is passed the Governor of Pennsylvania might veto this bill. What the Governor will do no one can tell until he has had an opportunity to have the bill before him; and if a bill such as the Williamson bill or something in its nature or something similar to it should be passed and the Governor should veto it, we of course have done our full duty. We cannot accomplish the impossible.

Now, the Williamson bill is of interest not only to the city of Philadelphia, but it is of interest to every county which has a first, second or third class city in it. It is not a bill that is of local benefit to Philadelphia. It is of benefit to all the thickly populated districts in Pennsylvania. And I for one, and I believe that I will be followed by the other Senators from Philadelphia, and I am convinced also will be backed by many Senators from the first, second and third class cities, in insisting that proper legislation be passed at this session whereby these localities shall receive full consideration of the question of the distribution of the money that come from that particular locality for the benefit of the roads in their counties. And if it becomes necessary, Mr. President, for the members of the Senate from Philadelphia to back-pedal, even go so far as to stop legislation in this Senate, we are going to get what we are entitled to get. I believe we would be justified in doing it, that we ought to do it. It is high time that we received fair consideration in the question of the distribution of the money for roads in Pennsylvania. They talk and have been talking very much here in the Senate and in the House and all over, including the Governor, about economy. Economy means saving money whereever you can and getting that money which belongs to you distributed where it should be distributed. This demand on our part is a question of economy for Philadelphia.

Under the Williamson bill we would get about three million dollars. Well, after a consideration of that bill, that amount of money may be considered a little more than we ought to get at this time. I am not particularly insistent that we get three million dollars, but we are insistent that we do get a fair consideration by both the Highway Committee and the Committee on Appropriations. And as I said before if we cannot get this consideration it is high time that the members of this Senate get together and form a combination to allow other measures that people from other sections of the State are interested in to also remain in the Committee. That is not fair legislation, but sometimes you cannot be fair; and if I have my way and we do not get proper consideration, it is my purpose to try to get the members of the Senate from Philadelphia to make House Bill No. 22 look like a pair of deuces in a packed deck. We are going to get consideration, and if we can not get it fairly, honestly and in accordance with upright legislation, we will have to go by the back door methods. But we are determined that fair consideration of this bill must be given to Philadelphia or we will have to take care of our selves in our own best way.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I move that his bill be recommitted to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ROOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you to defeat this motion to recommit this bill, because this bill has been introduced in one form or another in the early part of January, and it has been studied by the Committee on Insurance and has been reported out this week. This bill has been studied by the Committee since the early part of January, it has been discussed with the members of the House, and amendments have been offered this morning to eliminate the objections, and if there is anything wrong with the bill, the place and the time to discuss it or debate it is tomorrow or next week on third reading, and to recommit the bill to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities, which has nothing whatever to do with the matter, is merely an effort to prevent discussion and kill the bill.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, answering the argument voiced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root, opposing the motion to send this bill back to the Committee or to recommit to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities, let me say that the bill, while I realize the fact that the bill may not be discussed under a motion to recommit, that the bill embodies pensions features, which should be studied by the Commitee on Pensions and Gratuities and the fact that the gentleman from Philadelphia acknowledges that the bill has been introduced in three different forms would indicate that it touches on a matter around which there is cosiderable contention. Therefore, I ask you in defense of the Firemen's Relief Fund of Pennsylvania to vote to recommit this bill to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities, where I assure the gentleman from Philadelphia, knowing as he does the chairman of that committee, Mr. Wike, who unfortunately is not in his seat, but I have been assured the bill will have every consideration.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you is House Bill No. 1698, and without going into the merits of the bill, but just referring to its history, the bill was offered on January 21, and was referred to the Insurance Committee. It was reported out of the Insurance Committee and came up today for second reading, and now the motion is to send it back to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities. Why should a bill of such minor importance as this be first referred to the Insurance Committee and then thrown out to the cemetery committee, the Committee on Pensions and Gratuites. If the bill has merit, let us vote on it, and if the bill has no merit let us have the courage to say "no." If you will examine the bill, you will find that it has plenty of merits. I think the police are entitled to what the bill gives them, and I ask you to vote "no."

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the interest of the fire companies of Pennsylvania who are most vitally interested in this bill, I ask the House to return this bill to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities for further study.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WADE. I will, Mr Speaker.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he is not a member of the Insurance Committee?

Mr. WADE. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Have we had this bill in committee, and on the motion of one of the members was it submitted by the committee to a sub-committee to study?

Mr. WADE. I acknowledge that to be the truth, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. As chairman of that committee, have I not called a meeting to report to the entire committee that the sub-committee had reported this to be considered by our entire committee with a favorable recommendation?

Mr. WADE. I would answer the gentleman from Philadelphia by stating that the bill met with considerable opposition in the committee, much as I regret to divulge any secrets of the committee.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. You have attended those meetings, have you not?

Mr. WADE. I endeavor to attend all of the meetings, yes sir.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Why didn't you in that committee offer this very suggestion you are offering before this House this morning?

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I answer the gentleman by saying that I voiced every objection to this bill in committee, further stating that I do not care to divulge the business matters that take place in a committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time wants to make it very clear that any proceedings in committee cannot be brought before the House.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. If you wanted this to go the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities, why didn't you recommend that to the Chairman of the Committee?

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I answer the gentleman from Philadelphia by stating that I emphatically voiced my opposition to the bill being reported out.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the discussion is entirely irregular regarding the proceeding in committees, and the whys and the wherefores of committee positions.

The SPEAKER. The point or order is well taken. The merits of the bill and the proceedings in committee cannot be discussed on a motion to recommit.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is this the bill that takes part of the fund of the volunteer firemen and gives it to the policemen?

The SPEAKER. Unfortunately the Chair does not have time to read all of the bills. Does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, desire to interrogate the gentleman who is sponsor of the bill?

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like to, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROOT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman of the intent of this bill is to take the money from the volunteer firemen and give it to the policemen?

Mr. ROOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill as it was amended this morning does not take one cent from the firemen.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, were the session not so near to its final adjournment I would be agreeable to the motion if it meant further consideration of this bill, or any other bill which had not been previously considered. But we are approaching the closing day, and it now seems possible this House may finally adjourn at the end of next week, or certainly not later than the week following. This is a House bill, and the recommitting of it to a committee means that it will not be considered until next week, and can only mean the death of the bill.

As the sponsor of this bill explained in his interrogation, the amendments offered on the floor of this House today amend the bill so that not one cent is taken from the Volunteer Firemen's Association Fund. While it is not in order to discuss the merits of the bill, may I say merely this, that at the present time as this bill reads the contributions that would go to this fund would come only from casualty policies and not from fire and theft policies written by foreign insurance companies. The firemen receive their contributions only from the fire policies. Insofar as theft policies are concerned, as the bill now stands and as it has been amended, it relates only to casualty policies in which the firemen have no interest. Unless the motion is made purely for the purpose of actually defeating the bill, I can see no reason for the motion. The bill was very thoroughly discussed by a committee of the House and it was discussed by a sub-committee and finally acted on in committee. The urge of the sponsor of this bill is merely that the bill, as its sponsor has amended it, should have an airing and discussion on the floor of this House. A recommitment of this bill means its defeat. The courtesy of the House to the sponsor of this bill at least would mean that this bill should have discussion on the floor of the House, and particularly since he states that the Volunteer Firemen of Pennsylvania are not in any way affected by the provisions of the bill. I therefore would urge that the motion to recommit be defeated.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, much as I regret to continue this debate, and to violate the rules of this House, which forbid, as I understand, a discussion of the merits of a bill under a motion to recommit, let me say in answer to the statement of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, that the passage of this bill would affect greatly the Volunteer Firemen's Relief Fund.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentlemen the purposes in sending this bill back to the committee. This bill has been in committee since the first month of the meeting of this House.

The SPEAKER. Are the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Delaware holding a private conversation or are they addressing the House?

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker——

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Beech is informed that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Hough, has the floor.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I will yield to my colleague, Mr. Beech.

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the remarks passed between the two gentlemen in front of us be spread on the minutes.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman think it would look well in print?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware was not in his seat at the time.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. TURNER. Being an advocate of open diplomacy secretly arrived at, I am perfectly willing to lay the cards on the table and give the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Beech, and Mr. Hutton and anyone else whose ears are open to hear the remarks that passed between us.

I simply remarked to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Hough, that the understanding was that the bill was to be returned to the Committee after the second reading, and on that subject I might say that the gentleman had asked for the bill to be reported out, as he was anxious to serve his constituents and to do everything he could, and I would like to allow him to leave the bill on the calendar, but I cannot break faith with the members of the committee, to whom I put this proposition, therefore I made the motion this morning.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that such a statement was made by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, I feel I will have to acquiesce in his motion. However, it seems that since it has been in committee so long that it simply will die in committee instead of dying on the floor of the House. I will ask the members of the House to get the bill and read what it is, and see if it is not possible to give it some consideration. The day may come when we will all be glad to carry out that bill. I will acquiesce in the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I note that House Bill No. 1550 appears under my name as sponsor. In looking up the history of the bill, I find I have not sponsored such a bill interfering with Luzerne County. I think that the printer has made a mistake and created a new baby for me in the name of "Schwartz" instead of "Shortz."

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. His Excellency the Governor, has made arrangements for a meeting in Washington with the R. F. C., which necessitates the Speaker leaving this body today. Under the rules he can appoint a speaker to finish the day.

The Chair before leaving the rostrum desires to announce to the members that it is the hope of the Chair that while we take a recess to give time for lunch, we may clear the calendar before we leave this week.

The Chair is appointing as the Speaker pro tem the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, and asks him to approach the rostrum and preside over the deliberations of the body.

The Speaker before leaving the chair has one announcement to make. It is unfortunate that the Chairman of the Law and Order Committee, the gentleman from Armstrong Mr. Himes, is ill. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, has arranged for a meeting of that committee immediately after the morning session, and the Chair believes that an announcement should be made to that effect. The Chair only makes the announcement because the Chairman of that committee is ill and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, is the ranking officer of the Law and Order Committee.

The Chair turns the gavel over to Mr. Hutton.

(MR. HUTTON IN THE CHAIR)

STATEMENT BY MR. STERLING

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, it so happens that I have been asked to go with the delegation to Washington to confer with the R. F. C. on behalf of the Commonwealth this afternoon. In order to keep that appointment, we must leave here about 12.15 or 12.30.

There are a number of bills coming from the Legislative Committee which are to be postponed, and I should like at this time to have the privilege to call up those bills out of order, in order to make a motion to put them on the postponed calendar.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to calling out of order certain bills on the third reading calendar? Are their objections? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up out of order House Bill No. 1784, Printer's No. 386, on page 30 of today's calendar, bills on third reading.

On the question,

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interogated?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor of this bill explain its provisions.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Joint Legislative Committee, in its study of the amount of money received for state services rendered, considered not only those cases where services were rendered without compensation, but they also considered cases where services were not being paid for. They determined that in many cases the cost of the service was not covered by the amount of fees paid. This bill presents just such a situation. Heretofore death certificates that were issued by the Department of Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics, have cost the person that requested them fifty cents. This bill increases that amount to one dollar.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1786, entitled:

An Act to further amend section 11 of the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred sixty-two), entitled "An act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employes of subscribers thereto; declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors; and providing penalties for the violation thereof," by making the moneys in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund available for the reimbursement of the General Fund for certain services rendered or supplied by certain departments.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TERRY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill to explain to us its purpose in detail.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, explain the purpose of this measure to the gentleman?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the last of that group of bills which seeks to place upon the special funds the cost of the maintenance of those funds. This bill refers to the State Workmen's Compensation Insurance Fund, and completes the program with respect to the principles involved.

It simply imposes upon the State Workmen's Insurance Fund the cost now borne by the General Fund for audits, State treasury disbursement service, rent, light, heat and powers. The general fund receives no benefit from the State Workmen's Insurance Fund activities.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the State Workmen's Insurance Fund by two or three opinions rendered by the Attorney General in years past has been determined to be not a state agency. It is a separate and distinct business conducted by the policy holders in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund. Unhappily, I believe unhappily, the Commonwealth is the moral guarantor of the obligations represented by these contracts, but whether that be so or not, in my opinion, and it was the opinion of the committee, this is a separate and distinct agency out of which the General Fund receives no benefit, and should not burden the General Fund with the expenses involved in auditing, in treasury service, and for rent, light, heat and power.

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, I understand the State Workmens' Insurance Fund recently was operating in the red. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia have any knowledge of that?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Bechtel, asks me the question whether or not the State Workmen's Insurance Fund is operating in the red. My answer to that is, I fear that it is operating in the red, but I believe that results altogether from management. I am of the opinion that if His Excellency the Governor would place in that fund a manager who is trained in the insurance field that that fund would soon be placed in a better position.

I should like to point out to the House, also, that the Insurance Legislative Committee on State Finances has recommended that the management of this Fund be placed in the hands of the policy holders, so that it will be completely divorced from the political life of the Commonwealth. We are hopeful that the bill, which we will present shortly, will accomplish this end and will meet with your favorable approval but whether or not it does, this bill should be passed.

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, is it not possible, in view of his answer to the first question, that if the State Workmens' Insurance Fund is burdened with the expenditures which will be necessitated by this bill, that there is a possibility ultimately of its affecting the soundness of the contracts for widows and payments to children, that is compensation payments, for which the fund is already responsible?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, not in the least.

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, it would not have a tendency to destroy and run that fund toward the bankruptcy end?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Absolutely not, Mr. Speaker.

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—1

Hoopes,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announce that the next bill, House Bill No. 1357 (Senate Bill No. 356) Printer's No. 291, is not on the files and will be passed over for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1073 (Senate Bill No. 369), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 37), entitled "An act for the compensation by counties of persons detained as material witnesses in criminal prosecutions;" reducing the compensation of detained witnesses.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bad bill. It provides that when any person is detained as a material witness by order of the court or of the District Attorney or of a magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace compensation for being so detained shall be reduced from five to three dollars. Material witnesses are frequently detained through no fault of their own, very frequently mistakenly detained and it is worth five dollars a day to be detained in jail.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, in his statement said that it was worth five dollars a day to be detained in jail. May I ask where the gentleman from Cambria got the information?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, through serving a term for contempt of court.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Senate Bill No. 369, introduced by Senator Scott, as I understand it reduces the compensation from five to three dollars a day. It is one of a series of bills introduced by Senator Scott in the relief of local taxes, and which if enacted will save many thousands of dollars to a great number of counties in the State. I, therefore, think pursuant to the general policy of the reduction of fees and of wages in this House, in an effort to reduce the cost of government, that this bill ought to be passed.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL INTRODUCED

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask the unanimous consent of the House to introduce a bill. May I say to the House, that my reason for doing this is that we have developed a situation in my county by which we are going to have forced on us a controller.

We do not want him, it will cost us six or seven thousand dollars. All the bill does is to give the court discretion as to whether or not they shall make the order. It is now mandatory The court has no discretion in the matter.

All this bill does is to give the court the discretion. It will save my county six or seven thousand dollars, and I ask the indulgence and unanimous consent of the House to introduce the bill at this time.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the introduction of the bill at this time? Are there objections? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

The bill will be filed with the Bill Clerk.

CONSENT REQUESTED TO READ APPROPRIATION BILLS THE FIRST TIME

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I report the various hospital and home bills from the Appropriations Committee. Each one of these bills bears other than my name on the report, but to expedite matters and not tie the House up for a long time, in passing the bill from one man to another, I ask that these reports be accepted as coming from me. The bills when placed on the calendar should bear the man's name that appears on them. Therefore, I report from the Appropriations Committee the various hospital and home bills and ask unanimous consent for them to be read the first time.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for these bills to be read for the first time? Are there objections?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and the bills will be reported from Committee.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, may I state to the gentleman from Berks County, who is objecting to these bills being read for the first time, that this is important procedure.

These bills are in the heart of every member of this House. I can see no reason why the gentleman should tarry the progress of these bills. I am only appealing to his sense of human kindness toward the institutions, that they may not be dragged out for an additional week. Not to let these bills be read for the first time now may make it possible that instead of adjourning next Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, if you please, would probably delay the passage of these bills to the extent that we would have to return here the following week.

I hope the gentleman from Berks will kindly withdraw his objection.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny County, I deliberately objected to these bills because I insist that they shall be printed and brought before the House so that we may know what we are voting on.

I object for the additional reason that I have a number of bills in this House which are near to my heart and which I have been unable to get out of committee and I think it is time some of us have a chance to get some of our bills before this House.

I am not at all anxious that this House adjourn next week without having considered a solitary labor measure. I think it is time that some of those measures be brought out of committee and that we be given a chance to considere them. For that reason I am objecting to consideration of these bills at this time. As I understand it, they are appropriation bills for the next biennium, and that they will not hold up the appropriations to the hospitals for this biennium. That biennium, as I understand it, does not begin until June 1st.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks insists upon his objection. The bills will be merely read as to their titles.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, may I have the floor to raise a question of parliamentary inquiry?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny is recognized for the purpose of raising a parliamentary inquiry. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, is it possible by a vote of the members present to suspend the rule that may govern this procedure?

The SPEAKER. In answer to the question of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, and also the members of the House, the Chair will read Rule 88, as follows: "Any rule of the House may be suspended at any time for a specific purpose by a majority vote of the members elect; after the accomplishment of which purpose the rule shall remain in force as before."

The rule under consideration would be Rule 43, which reads as follows: "When bills on first reading are in order, the Speaker shall take up the calendar, and announce each bill in the order in which it appears on the calendar. They shall severally be read at length, and agreed to without amendments or debate, and journalized accordingly."

The Chair also calls to the attention of the House, Article III, section 4 of the Pennsylvania Constitution, which reads as follows: "Every bill shall be read at length on three different days in each House; all amendments made thereto shall be printed for the use of the members before the final vote is taken on the bill, and no bill shall become a law, unless on its final passage the vote be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the persons voting for and against the same be entered on the journal and a majority of the members elected to each House be recorded thereon as voting in its favor."

Does that answer the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle?

Mr. STEEDLE. It does, Mr. Speaker. Therefore, I move you that rule No. 88, be suspended.

The SPEAKER. Rule No. 88, is the rule, the Chair will inform the gentleman from Allegheny, which gives power to suspend. Rule 43 is the second rule which the Chair read.

RULE No. 43 SUSPENDED

Mr. STEEDLE. Then, Mr. Speaker, I move that Rule No. 43 be suspended for the present for the purpose of giving the hospital and home bills first reading.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you to vote down this motion for the reasons that I stated a moment ago.

There are plenty of bills that are held up in this House, that we are unable to get out and consider.

There is no reason why we should jam through the appropriation bills and then adjourn without considering those measures. Certainly you will not be hurting your hospitals by holding up these bills, because they are appropriations for the next biennium, which does not begin until June 1st. We have plenty of time to have these bills properly printed and considered, so we may know what we are voting on. It is a very bad precedent to pass these bills on first reading, without their being printed and having no way of knowing what they are. When they get to second reading we haven't a chance to consider them, and going at the pace we have been going this week, we do not have a chance to read them until they come up on third reading. Therefore, in order to try and get some other bills out of the committees, I ask you to vote against this motion to suspend, and I ask for a roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mrs. Wilson were as follows:

STATEMENT BY Mr. STEEDLE

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, before I proceed to report House Bill No. 260 I wish to rise and ask the floor on a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman wish to make a statement or is he speaking for a special purpose?

Mr. STEEDLE. To make a statement, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, in yesterday's publication of the "Harrisburg Telegraph" and many newspapers within the State, Governor Pinchot, of the State of Pennsylvania, saw fit to criticize this body with language to the effect that we are a lot of bums, to which I sincerely object and resent.

I wish to make the following statement in answer to the publications as of yesterday and of today in the various newspapers throughout the State:

"The general appropriation bill providing for a total expenditure of $127,060,083.03 for the coming biennium as reported to the House today is primarily an economy measure. Indeed, it is by far the most drastic measure of this kind ever presented to the Legislature. It is the result of weeks of intensive work and study of every phase of governmental activity. A sincere effort has been made to preserve the essential services of government and at the same time to save millions of dollars to the taxpayers.

The extent of the committee's work in this direction and its understanding of the needs of the emergency are indicated by the fact that the total expenditures as proposed by the general appropriation bill are about $13,000,000 less than the budget recommendations of the Governor.

As I said, our bill is primarily an economy measure. Every penny saved by the economies we propose will help to provide not only funds for unemployment relief, but for those other agencies for indirect relief for which the State has assumed large financial responsibilities—namely, the State-aided Hospitals and Homes.

For these the committee has felt that the critical situation in which they find themselves warrants increases all along the line. As is well known, the depression has greatly increased the expenses of the hospitals which have been compelled to provide free service on an enlarged scale to people out of work with no other means of procuring much needed medical and surgical aid. At the same time they have seen their usual revenues greatly reduced by reason of the reduced incomes of those private sources which ordinarily contribute generously to the hospitals and homes.

These hospitals now must look to the State for assistance or must close for lack of money with which to operate. It would be a terrible calamity for any community if its hospital service were to be cut off now. So the committee has felt that the hospitals must be materially helped and it has recommended to the Legislature that State-aided hospitals be increased 20 per cent. over the amount allocated to them in the 1931-33 biennium.

This is an increase of 29 per cent. over the budget allocations of Governor Pinchot, who recommends that the State-aided hospitals be reduced a little more than 9 per cent. below the total allocations for the past two years, the Governor's budget providing only $6,500,000.00 for this purpose.

The savings made possible by provisions of House Bill No. 22, known as the Turner economy measure, passed by the House this week, warrant us in recommending these increases for the hospitals and that the needs of the public demand it.

For the same reasons a ten per cent. increase is recommended for State-aided Homes.

I deeply resent the inference, just now brought to my attention, that members of this committee would countenance threats of hospital reductions in the districts of members of the Legislature not favorable to certain bills recently before the House. This is utterly false. The committee has been actuated only by the highest motives. The appropriation bill is proof positive that all such talk is utterly without foundation in truth. Every State-aided Hospital and Home in Pennsylvania has been increased. It is outrageous for anybody to insinuate that this committee, or the Legislature as a whole, would tolerate for a moment, such flagrant violation of public trust. The insinuation has not a vestige of truth in it.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentlemen from Allegheny will be noted in the Journal and spread upon the Legislative Journal.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. STEEDLE from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as amended, House Bill No. 260, entitled:

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 455

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 7, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 455, Printer's No. 172, entitled "An Act to provide for a Convention to ratify or reject an amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by both Houses of Congress for the Repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the said Constitution and for the prohibition of the transportation importation delivery or use of intoxicating liquors in violation of the laws of states territories or possessions of the United States and to provide for the election of delegates to such Convention."

This bill provides for a convention to ratify or reject the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States repealing the Eighteenth Amendment.

The people have a right to pass upon this question in the manner prescribed by Congress I am ready to approve a fair and proper bill for calling such a convention. But this is not a fair bill.

It proposes to put in operation at the same time two contradictory methods of choosing delegates. It proposes to allow the electors of each Congressional District to choose a delegate to the convention who would be pledged either to favor or oppose ratification of the proposed amendment. But it does not stop there.

After providing for the election of the district delegates, the bill immediately sets up machinery to nullify the will of the voters who choose them. It provides also for the election of seventeen delegates at large who, like other delegates, would be pledged either for or against ratification.

If, of the thirty-four district delegates, twenty were elected as wets and the delegates at large were dry, the seventeen dry delegates at large would nullify the will of the voters of the twenty districts; the result would be dictated by the fourteen dry districts plus the dry delegates at large. Likewise, if twenty districts voted dry, seventeen wet delegates at large would, with the fourteen wet district delegates, control the convention.

I am opposed to any bill that would make such a result possible.

To reach a fair representation of public opinion the delegates should be either all district delegates or all delegates at large. Any mixture of the two systems would result in a convention not fairly representative of the will of the people.

In view of the large amount of cheating at elections known to occur in certain parts of the State, the choice of all delegates at large would result in discrimination against those parts of the State in which elections are commonly conducted without fraud.

On the other hand, it is objected that the choice of delegates by Legislative Districts would result in discrimination in favor of the less densely settled parts of the Commonwealth. Congressional Districts also are properly objected to because the last reapportionment made in 1931 created some districts with more than twice the population of other districts.

On the whole, I believe that a convention based on the fifty Senatorial Districts of the Commonwealth would secure the fairest representation of all the people. Accordingly, I am prepared to approve a convention bill based on Senatorial Districts.

I cannot, however, approve the present bill, which pretends to give to electors of districts of this State a voice on this question, but clearly provides a means for nullifying their wishes.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the Governor's message be laid on the table.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 362

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 7, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 362, Printer's No. 103, entitled "An Act Validating certain proceedings and elections of municipalities had and held pursuant to the provisions of an act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five) entitled 'An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof' and the amendments and supplements thereto and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such proceedings and elections."

This bill would validate certain defective proceedings for the increase of municipal indebtedness and bonds issued thereunder.

The Act of March 31, 1927, P. L. 91, requires the Department of Internal Affairs to examine all proceedings for the increase of municipal indebtedness and forbids the issuance of any bonds without the approval of that Department. The supplement Act of April 11, 1929, P. L. 516, provides for an appeal to the courts from the action of the Department in approving or disapproving any such bond issue. It further provides that where a bond issue has been approved by the Department and no appeal has been taken within thirty days, or when such an issue is finally approved on appeal, it shall be a binding obligation of the municipality and shall not thereafter be subject to attack on any but constitutional grounds. It expressly declares that final approval of a bond issue by the Department of Internal Affairs or the courts shall validate and confirm the proceedings absolutely.

With that act in force there is no need for any further validating acts. If a bond issue has been finally approved in accordance with the Act of 1929, it has been validated. If it has not been approved, it should not be validated.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. Mr. President, I move that the Governor's message be laid on the table.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. ARMSTRONG offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 10, 1933.

It is with profound sorrow that the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania learn of the death of former Senator M. G. Leslie, member of this body from the Thirty-eighth District for twelve years from 1918 to 1930 and one of the most active participants in the councils of Senate leaders.

Senator Leslie was a native of Westmoreland County but throughout his business life he was one of the most conspicuous of political strategists in Allegheny County and was devoted to the best interests of his home community and his State. In early manhood he became Deputy United States Internal Revenue Collector at Pittsburgh and began to take an active interest in politics. Senator Leslie served for years as a member of Pittsburgh Council and was honored as its president. He was the recognized Republican leader in Allegheny County for many years, was chairman of the Republican City Executive Committee of Pittsburgh, member of the Republican State Committee, delegate to several National Conventions of the Republican party, and was delinquent tax collector of Allegheny County for four years.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHAPMAN. On this bill I would like to speak just a word. With the advent upon the scene of the Volstead Act, and the enactment of the Snyder-Armstrong measure, we hear much of the pros and cons concerning depression and prosperity

The sponsors of this measure we have before us would make us believe that its enactment will be a panacea, or a cure-all, for economic ills. This is all bunk.

Another aspect, more important than all the rest, is that of the effect of beer and wine upon the physical health and well-being of the individual. As a physician of nearly thirty years of experience I have failed to observe a single instance of benefit derived from the use of wine or beer in my patients. I find that beer is a mocker. Both wine and beer are poisons, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

Neither do I recall an inveterate beer and wine drinker who has lived to three-score-and-ten in life's span. They all die early.

With the enactment of this measure, and its Executive approval, I read in the dawn the doom of our American youth.

I care not what others may think, but for myself, give me good health and I will give you all the rest—prosperity, wealth, happiness, contentment.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not think there is much use answering the Senator who just spoke, because I think we have all made up our minds as to what we want to do on this bill. The question as to whether or not liquor is beneficial to the youth of this community or to the people of the community is a question that has long since passed over the dam.

The national House of Congress has passed the act allowing beer to be sold throughout the United States. Now the only question involved is, shall the sale of liquor be regulated or shall we allow liquor to be sold in every nook and corner of this Commonwealth? Possibly someone may open a beer saloon directly next door to the Senator's home, and I do not believe that he would like that very much. I do not think that I would.

Now that we are on the beer question, and on the liquor question, I would like to go back a little in its history and pay my respects to a couple of men who were at the Chigaco Convention. At the Chicago Convention Senator McClure, a member of this body, was on the platform committee, and worked for two days and nights trying to get together or agree with members of the platform committee whereby we would get some legislation that would be satisfactory to all the people in Pennsylvania. He found that he was up against what might be called stacked cards, because that committee, apparently, in its beginning was a one hundred per cent. dry committee. Senator McClure and General Martin, who was chairman at the time, tried to see if it was not possible that in some way a platform might be reached whereby all the people of Pennsylvania might be pleased with what would appear in that platform. The rabid wets and rabid drys were in a head-on collision; nothing could be accomplished in the form of a compromise; and I want to pay, at this time, my respects to both General Martin and Senator McClure for their ardent effort to try to please both factions in Pennsylvania. As a result they put themselves in the position of the peacemaker. Both sides tried to jump down their throats. They could not please one side, they could not please the other side, and it seemed as though a combination of both sides proceeded to trample both of them to death. But the final result was that we had a very poor platform, so far as the Republican organization was concerned, in Chicago. And I want to say, right here, that it was not the fault of Senator McClure nor the fault of General Martin. They both tried the best they knew how to get something in that platform that might please both sides on this question.

I want, also, to go back, in a small degree, in the history of this liquor legislation. The Republicans of the United States are now being blamed for everything imaginable with regard to the question of prohibition. Prohibition was born in the Democratic south. It was a Democratic baby, and when that baby got unruly they tried to unload it on the Republican doorstep, and, as a result of the recent election, the Republicans were blamed for prohibition—that was born in a Democratic home, in the Democratic South and a few rabid states o fthe West; and we Republicans of the United States had to bear a burden that was unjustly placed on our shoulders.

It is not a question now as to whether beer is good or bad: The question now is, shall beer be regulated? And that is the only question we have before us now. I am extremely glad that this prohibition question has come to an issue, because it is high time that this matter should be taken out of politics. At no time was it a political question; but it seemed, in the last election, it was made the political question. I think everybody ought to be happy that the question of liquor is to be taken out of politics, and we can go ahead and run our country without any more fraud. And we ought to be very happy in Pennsylvania at this time. The people seem to be very anxious to enjoy themselves. They are going to have their own way, I hope,—a majority of them. We are going to have Sunday baseball; we are going to have beer; and, I hope less baloney.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I agree with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, with reference to this beer bill, in that it is not a question of wet or dry but a question of whether or not the sale of beer shall be regulated and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania get some revenue therefrom. It seems to me it is a shame that there is no law upon the subject today. I am not sure that this bill is one hundred per cent as it should be; I am not sure it is all that I would like it to be; but as it is the only law in sight, I am willing to vote for it at this time, in order that there may be some legislation upon the subject and some restrictions upon the sale of beer.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I am indeed sorry that I was not recognized before Senator Buckman, because he has expressed my sentiments. I yield to no one in my position on prohibition. I am absolutely opposed to it, opposed to the Eighteenth Amendment, and will enthusiastically work for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. And I say that, ladies and gentlemen, with the pardonable pride that I have never touched a drop of intoxicating liquor in my life.

Mr. President, like Senator Buckman I am not satisfied with this bill. I am opposed to having the judges grant liquor licenses. But it is the only bill before this body. Thousands of barrels of beer are being sold without a bit of revenue being returned to the State. That revenue could well be used for the relief of the unemployed. I am for the first bill that will bring a return to the State, that has any decency to it at all. It is a crying shame that no legislation exists now that will bring a return to the State.

As I said before, I am not satisfied with the bill, but I will vote for it tonight. I reserve the right, however, that if any better bill is presented, some bill that meets with my approval more than this does, to vote for that bill also. I shall cast my vote for this bill, and I sincerely hope everybody in the Senate does the same, because I cannot view it as a wet and dry question, but as a matter of regulation and a matter of bringing revenue to this State.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I happen to have had a slight connection with this bill that is now before us, and this is not the first time I have had to speak as a partisan. I want to remind my distinguished colleague, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, that in my humble opinion prohibition was never born in the Democratic south but in the Republican State of Maine. And I also want to say that the time has come when I cannot with equanimity look upon this matter, even though some members of the Senate it may seem unimportant, being further delayed; for it seems, to my mind, almost inconceivable that any member of the Senate should bring up the question of wet or dry on this issue. I am a little suspicious of the activities even of the Governor of this Commonwealth in trying to delay the matter of submitting the question of repeal to a convention; and I look with suspicion on any attempt that is made to delay the passing of this bill. I think the time is far past when there should be any question of delay.

Very obviously there has been an opportunity even on this bill, to present various views upon the subject. I doubt not that as a pure matter of mathematics, there being fifty Senators here, it is entirely possible there may be fifty different views upon this subject. I want to say to my colleague, the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman, that I will not even go so far as to heed this warning that there may be danger of my dying young if I drink some beer. The people whom I represent do not agree with him; and, as the other Senators have said, there is no time for delay. This bill, in my humble opinion, should pass this Senate and should be signed by the Governor, because even in measures of this kind the people of the Commonwealth want action, and this is thoroughly understood to be a matter which must necessarily demand our immediate attention.

The State of Pennsylvania needs this revenue. The people of this State want to know what it is all about. And I, for one, want to join those members who have already arisen, and said they will vote for the bill, by adding to their declaration the statement that I cannot do otherwise.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 762, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (P. L. 4), entitled "A supplement to the act, approved March thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, entitled 'An act to consolidate, revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth,' further defining the offence of kidnapping, and affixing additional penalties thereto," by increasing the penalty for kidnapping with intent to extort money for restoration.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, this bill prescribes death or life imprisonment for the crime of kidnapping with intent to extort money for ransom. My strong preference is for the death penalty, but the extraordinarily able Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, whose counsel I usually find it advantageous to follow, advises life imprisonment as an alternative, for the reason that the Legislature probably would not agree with the view that kidnaping is on a par with first degree murder. If I felt that both Houses would see it as I do, I would offer an amendment eliminating the alternative of life imprisonment.

This bill was inspired by the dastardly crime which horrified the world, committed in New Jersey over a year ago, and which has since been repeated with appalling frequency. Charles Lindbergh is the finest type of young American manhood, and yet the country which idolizes him could not protect the inviolability of his home, and he has been obliged to purchase a residence in France; and the kidnappers and slayers of his child for fifteen months have succeeded in defying the police of three States and the Federal Secret Service, and are still at large.

Kidnapping is the most dastardly crime in the catalogue of human delinquencies. It combines three of the worst incentives and vices of human nature: cupidity, avarice and cruelty—aggravated by cold deliberation; and, unlike murder in occasional instances, it has no extenuating circumstances, and therefore deserves no mercy.

I think it might be well to borrow a feature or two from the experience and practice of the Middle Ages. They are sometimes called hard. Maybe they were. There is only one thing worse than hardness, and that is softness in the treatment of crime. It is certain they didn't coddle their criminals, or send bonbons and flowers to jailbirds, or pray the Board of Pardons to commute the sentence of convicted wife-murderers, or beg the President of the United States to release a fianancial pirate from a Federal Penitentiary because the prison air or prison fare does not agree with his pampered constitution, or railroad a degenerate homicide through the empty forms of a mock trial and a fake committal to the sublime eminence of the moving picture screen, or hire an expert humbug to establish the insanity of some ruthless killer whose mental balance is disturbed only by the terrifying prospect of suffering the same fate that he meted out, without mercy, to his helpless victim.

They had their murderers, robbers and kidnappers, just as we have, but with this difference—they hanged theirs. The Middle Ages realized, as did the ancient Hebrew law-givers, that the way to prevent crime is to make its punishment swift and certain, and the method formidable. A gold ring hung on a tree in Normandy for a whole year, and nobody dared touch it. Nowadays they hold up the sheriff or chief of police, and steal his badge of office besides.

The Middle Ages proceeded upon the simple, but now apparently obsolete, principle that crime is crime, and the object of punishment is to punish crime and not to reward it. They were not educated, you see, in the modern school of gush, by sociologists and magazine reformers who view crime as a misfortune or a disease, and define the villainies of crooks and moral perverts as freaks of double personality or misdirected genius. They acquitted a man in this State on the ground that cigarette smoking,—and no reflections are implied on the habits or present company,—had impaired his mind, and therefore it was the cigarettes that were guilty and not the man. In New York State a young foreigner killed his school teacher, under circumstances of unparalleled atrocity indicating a hopelessly depraved mind. He was acquitted on the ground of mental irresponsibility. In Oklahoma two men ran in a primary for the nomination of Governor. One was an ex-train robber and the other an ex-bank embezzler; and both had served time in the penitentiary.

There is not a judge in the country who will not tell you that crime is appallingly on the increase. And no wonder! Why should it not be? The most petted and pampered member of modern society is the crook and the moral pervert. He knows perfectly well that even if he is caught, which he probably will not be, or convicted, which is less likely, the worst thing that can happen is a temporary residence in a comfortable hotel run by the State, an apology from the judge for restricting his liberty, tears of maudlin sympathy from drolling sentimentalists, and the chance to run for office when he gets out.

Mr. President, we totally exaggerate the sanctity of mere physical existence. The value of a human life is determined not by its duration, but by its content, its quality, its direction. What actual or potential worth to society has the physical existence of a kidnapper? I believe the Pennsylvania Legislature will receive the applause of a just and enlightened public opinion from ocean to ocean if it enacts this bill into law.
